Pulmonary Function Testing

Medical Directorship of a Modern Pulmonary Function Lab

Pulmonary function tests (PFTs) are imperative to the diagnosis of people with respiratory symptoms, lung disease and disease management. PFTs require expertise to obtain both high-quality tests and proficiency in test interpretation.

Join Dr. Thomas DeCato and Dr. Matthew Hegewald for an insightful educational webinar on "Medical Directorship of a Modern Pulmonary Function Lab."

Discover:

- The importance of pulmonary function tests in understanding symptoms and diagnosing lung disease
- Learn expert recommendations for achieving high-quality test results efficiently and cost-effectively
